The Master's Junior Chef Challenge

Special point of interest:

- 2016 Sunday School Congress Highlights
- Encouraging our youth and young adults
- Contest Winners
- Scholarship Winners
- Grant Recipients
- President of the Year

There were 29 delegates registered at the Children's Convention. Eighteen were online delegates and 11 registered on-site.

The Children's Convention was almost to capacity this year. In keeping with the theme we challenged the children in every possible way. There were eight "Minute to Win It" challenges, a "Foods of the Bible" challenge, and the "Stir the Pie" cooking contest was the final challenge.

Every opportunity was taken for ministry. Bad behavior, was an opportunity for ministry. Low self-esteem, we stopped to minister. Overly enthusiastic play, was stopped and ministered. Bad housekeeping became ministry also. Sis. Sylvia Riddick was again a most capable coordinator in charge. She also had Sis. Nedra Moore (N) and Sis. Lisa Willis (SC) to come in to assist. Youth helpers were Brianna McClendon and Keanna McClendon (SC). Matthew 19:30 was the theme verse for this event.

Others that assisted were Sisters Valetta Ross (N), Shirlee Dunbar (E) and Genevieve McInnis (N).

It was another exciting Children's Convention and we look forward to seeing each other again next year.

We thank Sis. Valetta Ross for preparing crafted items for the residents.

We also thank Sis. Jasmine Hooker and the Southwestern Diocese SS & HYM for assisting in the planning of this event. Both groups were well received and enjoyed their time to give back. Listen to hear what will be planned for 2017 in Jackson, MS!

2016 Youth Convention

The 2016 Youth Convention during this year's COCHUSA National Convention was a huge success. It was held on Friday and Saturday, July 22 - 23. Thank you to Sis. Gabrielle Moore for her hard work in the planning of this event. For two days 126 youth and young adults were fully engaged in activities related to building comradery and biblical principals.

On Saturday evening the Youth Convention ended with a "Holy Ghost Party". There was a live DJ, food, and a whole lot of fun! It was enjoyed by all and many can't wait until next year!
