Checking In

Every week, we will learn about a different way to check in with teens and young children. This weeks check in is: UPS and DOWNS

Steer away from receiving one word answers. Ask questions to students to elaborate more on their feelings and what's going on in their lives.

Mission/Purpose Statement Breakdown

Targeting Different Audiences

1. One program can't effectively target.....
 - All Students
2. Different audiences exist, and identifying them will lead to a.....
 - healthier ministry.
3. When you take time to identify your target audience, you can:
 - Create programs with specific students in mind.
 - Better understand and meet students' needs
 - Help your regular students know who to invite to your program.

How are the target audiences defined?

The target audiences are defined by their spiritual commitments.

2 Timothy 2:2 - You have heard me teach things that have been confirmed by many reliable witnesses. Now teach these truths to other trustworthy people who will be able to pass them on to others.

2 Timothy 3:16 - All scripture is inspired by God and is useful to teach us what is true and to make us realise what is wrong in our lives. It corrects us when we are wrong and teaches us to do what is right.
